Mobile Developer – (Tbilisi, Hybrid)

Exxeta is now in Georgia, and we want you to become part of our growing Heartbeat Georgian Team and to make the world more digital and better together. Join us in creating solutions that are unique.

Join our Heartbeat Georgian Team and help build unique, high-quality mobile apps.

What awaits you

- Collaborate in an interdisciplinary team to develop mobile apps (Flutter, Swift, Kotlin)
- Shape app concepts and implement customer requirements with high quality
- Work independently while sharing ideas and knowledge with the team
- Deepen your knowledge of mobile architecture, technologies, and best practices
- Attend meetups, conferences, and training to stay up to date

What we expect from you

- Personal Background: You have a degree in computer science, mathematics, physics, engineering, or a comparable qualification.
- Quality Mindset: Your passion for high-quality software development and your high standards of quality is reflected in your work and your results.
- Tech Know-how: Experience with Flutter, Swift, or Kotlin and at least 2-3 years of professional experience
- AI Expertise: Experience in the end-to-end implementation of AI-powered features and in the use of LLMs across all development phases.
- Enthusiasm: You are passionate about your ideas and inspire your colleagues with them. At Exxeta, we are always open to your experimental spirit and curiosity about current trends!

- Let's Talk: You are highly proficient in both written and spoken English (at least B2 level) - excellent, as you'll fit right in at Exxeta.

Why Exxeta:

At Exxeta we challenge the traditional concept of consulting and tech. Over 1,200 colleagues at 18 various locations across Europe work together every day to create digital solutions, change markets and transform mindsets - driven by our passion for technology, our team spirit and the drive to create real impact. In other words: High-tech with a heartbeat.

We are a home for people who want to make a difference. Diversity and different perspectives enrich our team. Attitude, ideas, and a drive to get things done - that’s what matters to us!
